

WE'RE ANCIENT AND NEW

The faith we hold is ancient, going back to Jesus, back to his spiritual ancestors, back to those who walked the earth and found holy ground. And what we do is often based on really ancient patterns—worship and music; loving service to the poor, the hurting, the lonely; working for justice and peace; lively, fearless education and formation of minds and souls. And that faith is also completely contemporary, engaged in the culture and the needs of the moment.

WE'RE FOR

The dignity and worth of every person. An open-minded, passionate commitment to truth. The importance of everyone's own spiritual journey. God's friends wherever we find them. Seeking Christ in every person who comes through the door. The sacredness of life's rites of passage. The value of community. The hard work necessary to make sure that all are welcomed. Telling the truth about life's challenges. A "user-friendly" church experience. Children and families.

WE'RE AGAINST

Claiming to have all the answers. Elitism and exclusivism, especially in church. Bigotry for any reason. Authoritarianism. Indifference to injustice and suffering. Certitude in the face of ambiguity and superficial answers to hard questions. Boring sermons, bad music and general cluelessness. (So, God help us, because we don't always avoid them!)

WE VALUE

Community, open hearts, open minds, open arms. Faith. Fortitude. Staying current, but equally staying rooted in tradition. Reason and honesty. Civic responsibility as New Yorkers, Americans and global citizens. Debate that allows for mutual respect. Music and beauty for their own sake. Joy in God's creation. Anyone who makes an effort to get to know and follow Jesus.

OR, TO PUT IT MORE BRIEFLY:

Reason over dogma

Reality over perfection

And ambiguity over certitude.

In other words, Faith.

EASTER DAY

THE SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION

APRIL 20, 2014

Wherever you're from,
wherever you are in life,
this church may be the place for you.

WELCOME!

The joy of Easter surrounds us today. We don't claim to understand it all, but we proclaim this as our most important day, a day when we as a group of God's people proclaim with conviction what we hold to be most true: that life and God are bigger than we can hope or imagine and that somehow death is never the final chapter.

Your presence here today—whether you are here every week, only on occasion, or just for today—matters to us and enriches our journey.

We hope that you will find a glimpse of something about which you desire to know more. If you do, please let us know who you are so that we can be in touch. What we promise is a place of welcome where you can connect at your pace and on your time. Come again, won't you?

The flowers and music that brighten our sacred space are given by the special donations you make—as memorials or thanksgivings for friends, family, the church community and others. Thank you!

Everybody needs a place.
St. Bart's could be yours.
Check out what's inside, and join us.

LEARN AND GROW IN COMMUNITY

THE FORUM: Join us every Sunday at 10:05 am to connect faith with life. Programs include explorations of theology, social concerns, philosophical questions, and occasionally St. Bart's ministry and mission. Our Rector, Buddy Stallings, leads the discussion and often invites a guest speaker.

EXPLORE CLASSES: Sundays at 12:30 pm. Every person who comes to St. Bart's is genuinely and warmly welcomed. But that's just the beginning. If you are considering taking a closer look at membership in a spiritual community in the Episcopal tradition, join us for EXPLORE—a popular, interactive seasonal class with Rector, Buddy Stallings and Chief of Parish Ministries, Lynn Sanders.

BIBLE STUDY/PRAYER AND MEDITATION: To move past worship into a deeper understanding of the faith, we offer traditional and alternative explorations from weekly Bible Studies to Centering Prayer, Meditation, Yoga, Tai Chi and a Buddhist-style Sangha (Christian Meditation).

MUSIC: St. Bart's has a robust music program with three choirs: St. Bartholomew's Choir, St. Bart's Singers, and St. Bartholomew's Boy and Girl Choristers. Opportunities for participation exist at all levels from professional to volunteer. The church's Aeolian-Skinner pipe organ is the largest in New York City.

CREATIVE ARTS: From The Spirit of St. Bart's, our quarterly online journal, to video stories of our art and architecture, there is plenty of creative energy at this sacred oasis. St. Bart's is also home to the St. Bart's Players, one of the city's most beloved and long-running theatrical troupes.

And don't forget: Every Sunday, a live production of worship, pageantry, art and music takes place in four unique services—in which you play an interactive part. Serve as an usher, become a greeter, learn more about lay ministry, or take an EXPLORE class and find out more about what it means to be an Episcopalian and a member of St. Bart's. And take a tour of the church.

COMMUNITY GROUPS: St. Bart's has many. Some are defined loosely by age and generation, like the 20s/30s and the 40s/50s Plus. Others include the Movie Group, Lesbian & Gay Fellowship, Grief Group, Dream Group, The Women's Circle, and many more. Some groups meet year-round while others are seasonal. And some are yet to be created!

CHILDREN, YOUTH AND FAMILY MINISTRIES: We have an imaginative, engaging Sunday School for children ages 2 through fifth grade, and two terrific Youth Groups for kids in sixth through twelfth grade at the 10 am Education Hour—and so much more! We offer nursery care every Sunday for infants through four-year-olds from 8:30 am–12:30 pm; Children's Chapel during the sermon at our 11 am Eucharist; seasonal liturgies designed especially for children and youth; Family Days that include lunch, learning, fun and fellowship; outreach opportunities for making a difference in our church, our community and our world; and Interfaith Children's Education, an after-school program for kids in kindergarten through fifth grade. Our next family field trip is Sunday, April 27th. Please join us following the 11 am service as we travel uptown for lunch and to see the Phoenix sculptures of Xu Bing at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine! RSVP: barrie@stbarts.org

EVERY DAY OF THE YEAR.

*From that center flows learning and nurturing the spiritual journey with an open mind: making music, art and one another in fellowship,

prayer and contemplation.*

*It's a joy to us
that you are here today.
Come as often as you will.*

SERVE AND GET INVOLVED!

COMMUNITY MINISTRY: WE PROVIDED 160,000 MEALS LAST YEAR

Preventing hunger and ending homelessness are the focus of our work to establish God's realm on earth. Associate Rector Edward Sunderland coordinates the food pantry (now offering fresh, organic fruits and vegetables); the soup kitchen (setting new standards in home-cooked meals prepared by our volunteer chef and served by volunteers); and our overnight shelter, housing up to ten women every night of the week. Volunteers always needed and welcomed.

EPISCOPAL PEACE FELLOWSHIP

The Episcopal Peace Fellowship connects all who seek a deliberate response to injustice and violence and who want to pray, study and take action for justice and peace in our communities, church, and world.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Our large Habitat team participates in local and far-away builds. Past activities include building structures in the Dominican Republic, post-Katrina New Orleans, and areas ravaged by superstorm Sandy. A great way to meet others while doing significant work.

GENERAL VOLUNTEERING AT ST. BART'S

In a community driven by excellence and purpose—and a lot of joy arising from our credo of radical welcome—there are literally hundreds of volunteers. The work can be challenging and fun. Check the web for current openings.

ST. BART'S — MORE THAN A CHURCH

A TOP-RATED PRESCHOOL: St. Bartholomew Community Preschool's philosophy is based on fostering a love of learning, celebrating and embracing each child's uniqueness, and providing an environment where children's curiosity is encouraged.

SUMMER AND WINTER CAMP: An amazing urban day camp offering something for everyone ages 3 to 13—tennis, soccer, basketball, baseball, hockey, volleyball, track and field, and swimming in a full-sized pool; creative arts on site.

A FAVORITE PLACE FOR WEDDINGS, CONCERTS, MOVIE SHOOTS, AND PRIVATE GATHERINGS WITH CATERING: Inside Park at St. Bart's is our adjoining restaurant open year-round, indoors and out. A perfect complement for any social venue in our gorgeous, sacred space.

THE STORE AT ST. BART'S: The store is located in the lobby of the church (the narthex) and offers a great selection of titles for adults and children, Bibles, prayer books and gifts for various occasions.
